UP, DOWN, ALL AROUND is a full-length work devised and performed by the Teen Ensemble. This production explores the literal and metaphorical experience of looking up, down and all around. The first half of the show explores the ways the theme shows up in storytelling and the second half explores the ways the theme shows up in real life: What do we see when we look up? What makes us look down? What are we hoping to see? What don't we see?

THE SHOW IS APPROX. 1 HOUR WITH NO INTERMISSION.

“Up, Down, All Around” Music & Lyrics by Jai-Lyzz

What makes you look Up?	The fear of falling
What makes you look Down?	The endless emotions
The Stars?	Carried on our backs bringing us down
The Moon?	and down
The feelings we hide inside?
The summer grass we run on every day	We look Up, Down, All Around
	We look Up, Down
	Everywhere we go
I can't see what's coming	Everyday of our lives
I'm so scared of the Unknown	We look Up, Down
The future crossing my mind
I'm looking left and right	Love and Hope
but not in front of me	That's what gets us up and going
	We tell stories of all things in life
We look Up, Down, All Around	Different perspectives
We look Up, Down	Different views
Everywhere we go
Everyday of our lives	We look Up, Down, All Around
We look Up, Down	We look Up, Down
	Everywhere we go
Who are we without the things that we hide?	Everyday of our lives
Who are we to have a blindfold in disguise	We look Up, Down
	[Repeat]
